Confirmation

I certify that the information I have provided is accurate. I give Briar Hill permission to contact each of the references listed above. I understand that not all applicants will be interviewed and that not all interviews will result in an employment offer. In addition, I understand and agree to the following:

- CIT applicants must turn 14 before the start of camp. All other counselors must turn 16 before the start of camp.
- All staff must attend staff orientation on June 9th, 2024 or makeup orientation on June 22nd, 2024
- A staff member may miss a maximum of 5 full days (10 days for CIT Floaters). There are NO exceptions to this policy. Note: missing more than 2 hours in a day is considered a full day, missing less than 2 hours is considered a half day. Please carefully consider whether other commitments (sports, vacations, etc.) are compatible with these requirements.
- Candidates that are fully available are given preference for assignments and promotions.
- Cell phone use is not permitted during the camp day.
